Women's Animal Center

With compassion and caring as our foundation, Women's Animal Center saves the lives of animals and improves the health of pets through sheltering and adoptions, veterinary services, community partnerships, educational resources and advocacy. Founded in 1869 as America's First Animal Shelter™ we honor the legacy of our thirty trailblazing women founders by ensuring that all animals are treated humanely and with kindness.

For 152 years, Women's Animal Center has served the pets and the people of the Greater Philadelphia region. As the only open-admissions animal shelter in Lower Bucks County, Women's Animal Center accepts all animals found or surrendered to us, regardless of age, breed, size or health ensuring that all animals have a chance to find their forever homes. Women's Animal Center is among just 12% of veterinary hospitals in the United States to be accredited by the American Animal Hospital Association (AAHA) for prioritizing pets' health and providing high-quality care. Treating family-owned pets in our community and animals recently adopted from the shelter since 1909, our veterinary hospital strives to provide superior care and affordable veterinary services to our community. The non-profit hospital offers a broad range of services to pet families including: wellness exams, vaccinations, spaying and neutering, x-rays, bloodwork, dentistry, advanced laser surgery, physical rehabilitation, and chronic disease management. All service fees raised through our nonprofit hospital are directly reinvested to support the shelter, nourishment and compassionate care of our shelter animals.

Women's Animal Center is a registered 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization receiving no federal, state or local government funding, but depending on the generosity of individual donors, foundations, businesses and corporate partners to accomplish our lifesaving mission.
